I am happy to note that NCRB is publishing the annual edition of 'Accidental Deaths and Suicides in India' for the year 2017. This edition is 51st in the series. It provides comprehensive information on accidents and suicides in the country.

2. This annual publication serves as the principal reference document on various aspects of accidents and suicides in the country. It is used by various stakeholders inter-alia for formulation of policies and strategies to meet the challenges, as also research.

3. I convey my gratitude to all States and Union Territories for supplying the data to NCRB. I also appreciate the efforts made by NCRB to compile and collate the data on accidents and suicides statistics for the year 2017.
