I am glad to know that NCRB is publishing the annual edition of 'Accidental Deaths and Suicides in India' report pertaining to the year 2018. This annual report provides in depth statistical information on various aspects of accidents and suicides in the country.

2. This annual publication serves as the principal reference document on various aspects of accidents and suicides in the country. It is indeed useful to all stakeholders as it helps in policy formulation and implementation, as also research on mitigation strategies.

3. I am grateful to States and Union Territories for providing the necessary information to NCRB. I appreciate the efforts made by NCRB to compile and collate the data on accidental deaths and suicides statistics for the year 2018.
