Message

I am happy to note that the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB) is bringing out the annual publication 'Prison Statistics India' for the year 2017. This report is 23rd in the series and contains detailed statistical information on various aspects of prison administration in the country.

2. I hope that this publication will be useful for the Parliamentarians, Policy makers, Central & State/UT Governments, Prison Administrators, Criminologists, Researchers, Academicians and all other stakeholders.

3. I also acknowledge the efforts of the Prison Departments of all States and UTs for furnishing the required information for this publication. I would like to take this opportunity to convey my appreciation to Director, NCRB and his team of officers for their dedication in collecting and compiling the data for preparing this report.
